What is being said about EDUCATION IN HUMAN VALUES (EHV)

Comments from TEACHERS

- The programme certainly motivates the children's behaviour and makes them think about each other and how to behave in society.
- We love the resources. They have been implemented across the school.
- Your EHV resources have helped busy teachers deliver quality PHSE lessons.
- We have found the resources fit in perfectly with the British Values agenda.

Comments from CHILDREN

- EHV will help me with the rest of my life.
- The difference with EHV is that we go on learning after the bell to end the lesson.
- Human values don't just help you in school; they help you everywhere you go.
- Education in Human Values has made me a better person.
- It's a brilliant programme, which should be used in every school, big or small. It helps people control their tempers and brings everyone closer together.

Comments from PARENTS

- In this school we really see values in action!
- The Education in Human Values programme has had huge impacts on the school.
- The children are always very polite and respectful to each other.

Comments in OFSTED REPORTS

- Pupils are kind and respectful towards one another, are adept socially and equipped with strong spiritual and moral values. They have a deep understanding of tolerance and equality, both of which lie at the very heart of British fundamental values.
- Pupils behave well and get on well with one another. The school is happy and is liked by pupils, parents, carers and staff alike. It promotes pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development well.
- The behaviour of pupils is outstanding. Pupils, their parents and the school can take great pride in the exceptionally strong personal skills that pupils develop.
